

We're urging you to support the Do Not Call Program and not even consider doing away with it. It should remain as is for those who want to voluntarily sign up for this needed service.